

YOU ARE INVITED

on Friday, 6th May 2016 to

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

by William Shakespeare

Directed by Marianne Copithorne & Troy O'Donnell

On Friday, 6th May, the Eva Howard Theatre at Victoria School of the Arts will have 750 members of the legal and theatre communities and their families in their seats and on the stage for the 11th annual fundraising performance and reception, this year benefiting Free Will Players Theatre Guild and Victoria School Foundation. In our first 10 years, together we have raised over $818,000 for Edmonton's theatre community.

Following The Mousetrap (2006), You Can't Take it With You (2007), Arsenic and Old Lace (2008), Father of the Bride (2009), Murder on the Nile (2010), Lend Me a Tenor (2011), The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 (2012), The Government Inspector (2013), The Matchmaker (2014) and The Beaux' Stratagem (2015), the Players De Novo will be back, on Friday, 6th May 2016, at 7:30 p.m., with this year's Legal Community play, William Shakespeare's A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM.

Tickets are $100 each and include the performance, the post-show Gala Reception, parking at Victoria School and a $75 tax receipt. This year, the play has two beneficiaries: FREE WILL PLAYERS and VICTORIA SCHOOL FOUNDATION, our host for the event.

These plays sell out early, so please return your order form for tickets a.s.a.p

A Midsummer Night's Dream is one of Shakespeare's most delightful creations, a story not drawn from any particular source, but rather the original product of Shakespeare's own imagination.

Love lost and found in an enchanted forest. Intertwined plots about runaway lovers, a feuding fairy king and queen, a mischievous Puck, and a group of tradesmen who make the mistake of rehearsing their play in the forest, where the lovers hide . . . where the fairies rule . . . who may make an ass of you.
